Black Republican Hypocrisy—The Re sponsibility of Distulcu.

The Black Republicans having by their bitter and constant attanks upon the South, by their personal liberty bills, by their avoyed determination to repeal the fugitive eleve law; by their underground railroads, by their denial and refusal of equal rights in the territories, by their hatred of the Bouth, developed with a murderous attack upon the citizens of Virginia by John Brown and his bandits and by their openly pro-claimed intentions, certified to by sixty-eight Republican Congressmen, to create in the South a civil war and servile insurrection - Farmers, Study Economy, having by these things forced the Union to the very verge of dissolution, now seek to cover their treason to the compact which binds these States together, by vaunting themselves staupch union men, and with a deep and devilish Hyrocrisy, reading homilies to the wronged and maddened South, upon the wickedness of disunion sentimental To us of the free States who are unwilling
